HOW TO OPTIMISE YOUR SLEEP WITH THE RIGHT PILLOW

Optimise your sleep by choosing the TOSHOP Ergonomic pillow that best supports your body in its natural position. Here to help, you can use 3 types of sleep: choose TOSHOP Ergonomic pillow to your suitability.

Don't forget your sleeping posture. Whether you sleep on your back, side, or stomach, you need to support your neck and head in a way that allows your spine to maintain its natural alignment.

When it comes to the fit of your pillow, the most important factor is your neck and head. A pillow that is too high or too low can cause neck pain and discomfort.

Use a pillow that is the right height for your neck and head. A pillow that is too high or too low can cause neck pain and discomfort. A pillow that is too soft or too firm can also cause discomfort.

TEMPUR® Seat Design

The advanced design without disturbing pressure of TEMPUR® memory foam distributes your full weight to reduce the discomfort of cushions (especially on larger sitting). The pressure-relief gel layer reduces your body's contact with the chair, so you'll feel like you're sitting on a cloud. The gel layer also helps reduce your pressure on the seat, so you can sit for longer periods of time without feeling any discomfort.

TEMPUR® Seat Cushion

The pressure-relieving and backrest cushioning of TEMPUR® memory foam distributes your full weight to reduce the discomfort of cushions (especially on larger sitting). The seat cushion is designed to be comfortable on the chair, so you'll feel like you're sitting on a cloud. The gel layer also helps reduce your pressure on the seat, so you can sit for longer periods of time without feeling any discomfort.
